U.S. WOMEN'S TACKLE FOOTBALL NATIONAL TEAM TRAINING CAMP BEGINS JULY 21 AT WALSH UNIVERSITY IN NORTH CANTON, OHIO

Practices open to media and coaches and players available from July 21-27

USA Football, the sport's national governing body and a member of the U.S. Olympic & Paralympic Committee, will hold the 2022 U.S. Women's Tackle National Team's training camp at Walsh University from July 21-27 in preparation for the 2022 International Federation of American Football (IFAF) Women's Tackle World Championship.

U.S. Women's Tackle National Team practices will be open to media and fans free of charge. Practices will occur twice a day from Friday, July 22 through Monday, July 25 at Walsh University's Larry Staudt Field. The U.S. team is led by head coach CALLIE BROWNSON, who also is the assistant wide receivers coach and chief of staff for the Cleveland Browns.

U.S. Women's National Team coaches and players will be available for media interviews at Larry Staudt Field from 12:30 p.m. to 1 p.m. and 6:00 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. starting Friday, July 22, through Monday, July 25. The team also will be available for media on Tuesday, July 26, from 12:30 p.m. to 1 p.m. before breaking camp.

The U.S. Women's Tackle National Team will live on the Walsh University campus throughout camp before flying from Cleveland Hopkins International Airport to Vantaa, Finland to compete in the 2022 IFAF Women's Tackle World Championship from July 28-Aug. 8. The IFAF World Championships will feature the eight-best women's tackle football national teams on the globe. The U.S. women have won three consecutive World Championship gold medals (2010, 2013, 2017).
